TOKYO — (AP) — Australian and Canadian troops rolled up sizable gains today on the muddy Central Korean front.

But elsewhere in the Central and Western sectors, the Communists fought their stiffest defensive action of weeks. They were dug in about four miles south of the Red Korean border in both areas.

Peace Bid Spurned
The Red stand came as China rejected General MacArthur's bid to talk peace with the Communist commander in Korea.

MacArthur's headquarters told Red troops and supply movements which indicated the Communists might be massing for spring offensive timed to strike when April's seasonal rains bog down the Allied heavy weapons. In a Peiping broadcast spurning MacArthur's peace talk offer, Red China said it was impertinent and insulting and "worth only a single laugh." It said:

"The entire Chinese people will fight unrelentingly until the aggressor is completely driven from Korea."

Federal Court Jury Convicts Atom Spies

NEW YORK — (AP) — Two men and a woman were convicted today of passing wartime atomic secrets to Russia in the first atom spy trial in the United States.

The jury returned its verdict at 1 a. m. (EST) after seven hours and 18 minutes of deliberation.

The convicted defendants, who could receive the death penalty, are Julius Rosenberg, 34-year-old electrical engineer; his diminutive, dark-haired wife, Ethel, 35, and radar expert Morton Sobell, 33.

The prosecutor did not ask for the death penalty, however, during summation.

Fontanna Endorsed For Next Michigan Conservation Chief

LANSING — (AP) — The Ingham county conservation league board of directors today announced they had endorsed S. G. Fontanna as the next state conservation director.

Fontanna, presently deputy director, was designated by the conservation commission to act as director without change in title following the death of director P. J. Hoffmaster 10 days ago.

Oslo Pact Signed

Drys Defeated Down In Texas

Legislature Rejects Prohibition Bill

By MARTHA COLE
AUSTIN, Tex. — (AP) — Prohibition lost, but Texas "drys" say they aren't discouraged.

The state House hearing yesterday on an amendment to set a state-wide election on prohibition was just like the half-time show at a football game.

Some 1,000 "wets" sat in the gallery, then together whipped out big cards saying: "I am against prohibition."

The "drys" were outnumbered, and wore smaller cards that read simply "WCTU."

The legislative committee killed the amendment, 15-5. Mrs. Claude Devan Watts, state president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said: "Of course, we are disappointed—but this unreasonable, undemocratic act of a hostile legislative committee is only a temporary obstacle in our progress."

C. L. Clark of Houston, one of the anti-prohibitionists, said "they didn't catch us asleep this time."

Both sides presented ministers. The "drys" let Frank Boydston, captain of last year's Baylor university football team, carry the ball, too.

The "wets" presented the Rev. James McLain, now the rector of an Episcopal church, but the original Dr. I. Q. of radio fame. He gave a bit of his routine as Dr. I. Q. and "knocked 'em dead."

McLain said prohibition is part of a religious conviction and should not be a part of legislation.

Crusade On Crime Gains Momentum In Backing Of Church

(By The Associated Press)
The crusade against crime, spearheaded by the Kefauver committee and other agencies, gained momentum today as a national Protestant group urged church action to strengthen the country's "moral fibre."

Hailing the official crackdown on organized crime, the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., asked churches everywhere to help halt the "moral delinquency in our society."

Wage Stabilizer May Have To Ask Aid Of Congress

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston may ask Congress to help him get the wage stabilization board going again unless management and labor shake hands on his peace proposal in the next few days.

Johnston held a two and one half hour meeting yesterday with the labor chiefs, but it brought no evident change in the situation.

Big issue in the way of agreement is: Whether a newly created 18-man wage stabilization board representing labor, industry and the public should handle disputes not involving money questions.

Lawyers of the justice department and Johnston's staff have held that a full-scale labor-management conference may not be necessary to meet requirements of the defense act before such a dispute board is set up. But they say "agreement" is essential out of the informal talks Johnston has been having for weeks with both sides.

Draft Of Jap Peace Treaty Is Completed

Copy Of Pact Sent To 15 Nations

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The state department is distributing to 15 nations this week a completed American draft of a Japanese peace treaty. These nations are being invited to state their reaction and propose, as soon as possible, any changes they may want.

State department officials hope that within about three months an agreed treaty draft may result from the formal negotiations now getting underway.

Russia Won't Cooperate
Some difficulties are foreseen, however, since Australia and New Zealand are worried about possible future Japanese rearming, the Philippines have insisted on reparations and Britain would like to curtail the Japanese shipping industry.

Russia is one of the countries receiving a copy of the U. S. treaty draft but is not expected to accept it as a basis for negotiation. The Soviets have strongly indicated they do not intend to cooperate with the other World War Two allies on an early peace treaty for Japan.

Ambassador John Foster Dulles, it was learned, has been distributing the tentative treaty text in a series of talks with ambassadors of the countries directly concerned with shaping Japan's future.

In substance what the U. S. is proposing is a treaty which would

Defense Budget Getting Bigger

Mounting Prices Add To Military Costs

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Price increases and program revisions may add $10,000,000,000 to the defense budget for the next fiscal year, Rep. Mahon (D-Texas) said today.

Instead of the $60,000,000,000 military budget foreseen by President Truman in January, Mahon said, the outlay needed for defense will be closer to $70,000,000,000.

Mahon is chairman of the House appropriations subcommittee which handles the defense budget.

But while the 1952 budget may be $10,000,000,000 more than had been expected, he told newsmen, Congress may be able to get by the balance of this fiscal year on $3,000,000,000 less than had been indicated.

The present fiscal year ends on June 30 and indications have been that an extra $10,000,000,000 would be requested for military purposes before then.

Spending Slash And Sales Tax Proposed To Balance Budget

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A five per cent national retail sales tax and a $6,000,000,000 slash in government spending were among steps proposed today by the committee for economic development to achieve a balanced and adequate federal fiscal program.

In addition to a $10,000,000,000 tax increases as soon as possible, the businessmen's research group suggested tight restrictions on expansion of bank credit, and a national program to encourage private savings.

Dewey also said he would set up a state-wide crime commission to study responsibilities of the state and local governments in law enforcement.

In Washington, Republican members of the Senate crime probe committee were working to extend the life of the committee, which ends this Saturday.

Racketeers Hunted
Across the nation, local and state authorities blasted away at known gamblers and race wire services.

In Youngstown, Ohio, former convict Joseph Di Carlo gave himself up at the federal building. Police said Di Carlo was sent to the Ohio city from Buffalo in 1945 to organize racketeers.

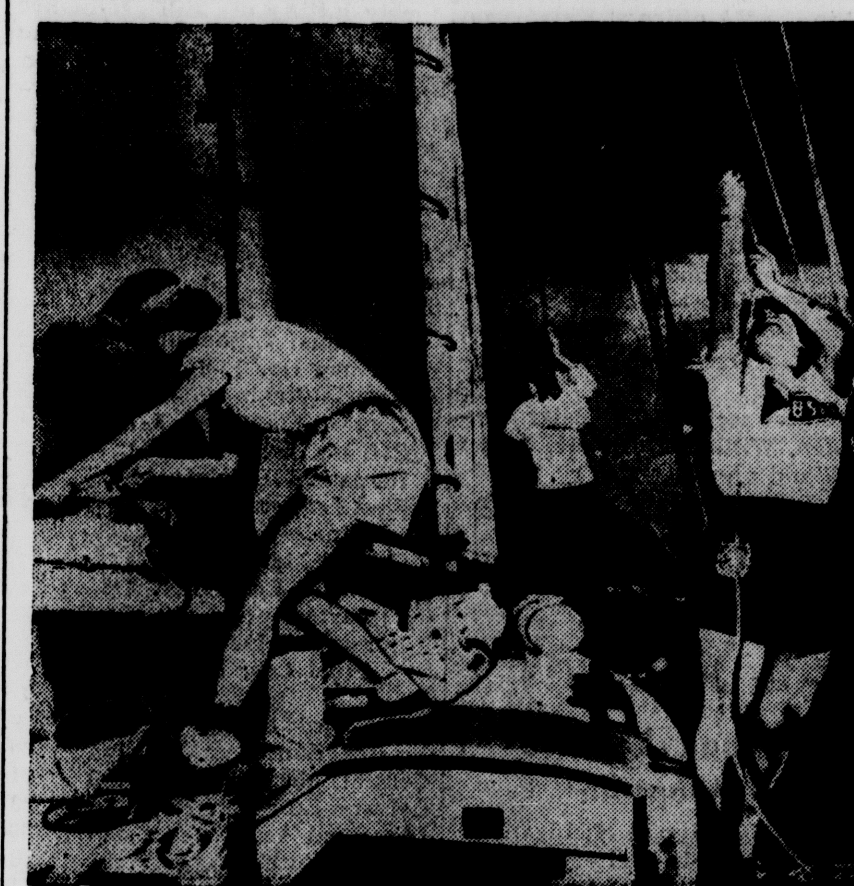

Di Carlo had been indicted for contempt of Congress for refusing to answer Kefauver committee questions.

Still being sought on similar contempt indictments are James Licavoli of Cleveland, convicted extortionist, and Joseph J. Aiuppa of Cicero, Ill., described as a bigtime builder of gambling equipment.

In Milwaukee, the Wisconsin Telephone company complied with police demands to remove the business telephones of all known gamblers.

Feels Like A Fish
JACKSON — (AP) — Darrell Kellogg, 23, of Horton, knows how a fish feels at the end of a line. Kellogg is a television aerial installer, and while working on one at nearby Vandercook Lake, the 30-foot pole crumpled, Kellogg was held to it by a thin safety belt. The aerial dangled over the roof and Kellogg was suspended from it, like a hooked fish, until help came.

Grocers Tackle Job Of Cutting Prices

MISSING AT SEA — Navy and Coast Guard air and surface craft intensified the search today for eight pretty girls and their male skipper, missing in rough seas off the lower Florida keys in the 43-foot schooner Tropical. The schooner was unreported since Monday and fear was expressed that the food supply may have run out. It also may have put in at one of the thousands of small islands in the area. Shown in the picture above at the start of the voyage from St. Petersburg to Havana are, left to right: Dot Sherrill, Clarice Wilson, Janice Kaufman and Pat Fenner, all of St. Petersburg. Miss Fenner is a dancing teacher, Miss Wilson and Miss Sherrill are department store clerks, and Miss Kaufman is secretary to the schooner's owner and skipper, Lee Hederman.

Legislative Trading To Raise Taxes Out In Open At Lansing

LANSING — (AP) — After two years of bare-knuckle fighting, Michigan Republicans and Democrats today were trying to strike a deal to raise taxes.

Michigan was witnessing a political freak—a governor of one party and a legislature of an opposing party talking legislative trade right out in the open with newsmen looking on. There wasn't a smoke-filled little room on the premises.

Lots of Work Yet
Governor Williams seemed ready to agree to a "moderate" increase in the gasoline tax and Republican legislators appeared willing to agree to a "moderate" corporation profits tax.

The question still to be settled was the definition of "moderate." A lot of spade work remained to be done.

But it was a long way from the bitter battling of Williams' first term, when he bucked any gas tax increase and the Republicans jeered at his corporation levy.

Both sides, longing for weeks for someone to broach a compromise, took the bit in their teeth at a public conference yesterday and began to trade.

Both sides agreed afterwards the ground had been cleared and that a "solution" was possible.

There was talk of naming a select group of Republican leaders to sit down with Williams and tie up the bargain in all its details. Williams reportedly was seeking new avenues of negotiating with the Republicans.

Speech Upsets Some
The lawmakers kept their bargaining position strong by reporting out of a House committee a bill to increase the gas tax from three to five cents a gallon.

Williams, in turn, tried to bolster his position by declaring in a Detroit speech yesterday afternoon his opposition to the two-cent boost and his slightly weaker opposition to the one-and-a-half-cent increase voted by the Senate.

House leaders expect to pass the two-cent boost as soon as it is reprinted with amendments. That may take a week. Then it would go to a conference to iron out the variance with the Senate version.

Thus, there was time for negotiations, although some House Republicans were upset at Williams' Detroit speech. They hinted he was talking out of both sides of his mouth.

Campaign Lags For Red Cross
Dives Fail To Reach Their Set Quotas
(By The Associated Press)
Almost without exception, Red Cross drives in Michigan cities and counties are failing to produce their set quotas.

Some cities with campaigns slated to end this week, are behind as much as 70 per cent in their fund raising.

Other communities have had to extend their drives beyond the period originally planned, but with little hope of reaching their goals.

Generally, quotas in the 1951 drive were increased up to 25 per cent over 1950, in which some cities also failed to make their goals.

The 1951 drives were reported progressing well in only a few counties.

One of these was Hillsdale where $12,250 of a goal of $12,489 had been raised. Officials were certain of going over by March 31. Last year, it took two months to raise $10,396.

Kent county, whose quota of $227,000 represented a 25 per cent hike over 1950, has raised $207,000, or 91.3 per cent of goal. Officials hope to come closer by a mail campaign and other post-drive efforts.

Soviet Proposals Renew Hopes At Big 4 Meeting

PARIS — (AP) — Western sources today greeted Russia's new proposals for a foreign ministers' conference agenda with reactions ranging from cautious optimism to enthusiasm.

The delegates of the United States, Britain and France met at the French foreign ministry to exchange views of the new and apparently conciliatory suggestions submitted yesterday by Soviet deputy foreign minister Andrei Gromyko.

They postponed until tomorrow the meeting with Gromyko, scheduled for today, in order to give more time to discussion of his proposals.

Gromyko yesterday submitted a new wording in which Russia dropped her previous demands that German rearmament be considered as a separate subject, as well as her earlier insistence on the Potsdam agreement of 1945 as the basis for east-west discussions.

Blizzard Traps 7 In Colorado

Picnic Party Hunted In Mountain Area

DENVER — (AP) — Seven persons—including two children—were feared trapped today by snow which swept over a mountain area where they went for a picnic.

A rescue unit of six men with a truck and two snow weasels left Lowry Air Force base here early today to search along a forest road where the missing party is believed to have driven. Highway patrolmen and sheriff's officers also are participating in search efforts.

The party is believed marooned in the Devils Head area of the Rampart range between Denver and Colorado Springs, 70 miles to the south. A blizzard whipped over the area Tuesday night and early yesterday. Seventeen inches of snow were dumped on Pikes Peak at Colorado Springs. The snow stopped yesterday morning and most of it melted in the Denver area.

Overdue from the mountain jaunt are:

Corporal Wendell E. Froese, 23; his wife, June, also 23; their children, Nancy, 3½, and Jessie, seven months; Froese's sister-in-law, Mrs. Juanita Froese, 18, Junction City, Kas.; his brother James Froese, 14, and Pfc. Reginald J. Wiggins, 21.

All except Mrs. Juanita Froese are from Denver. Froese and Wiggins are stationed at Lowry Air Force base. The group was clad only in blue jeans and lightweight jackets.

American Casualties In Korea Now 57,120

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Announced American casualties in Korea rose to 57,120 today, an increase of 1,306 since last week.

The total, representing casualties reported to the next of kin through March 23, included 8,511 killed, 37,918 wounded and 10,691 missing in action.

Biologists Condemn Delta Walleye Bill At Public Hearing

LANSING — (AP) — Fisheries biologists last night, at a public hearing, condemned a House bill to curtail commercial fishing for walleyes in the Big and Little Bays De Noc.

Spokesmen for Delta county business, resort and sportsmen's groups supported the bill.

Dr. Halph Hile of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, opposed the "fallacy" that heavy commercial fishing pressure was destroying the walleye population of the area, described as "one of the ten best fishing spots in the nation."

Boom Abnormal
Dr. Hile argued that the walleye population boom is abnormal and that increased production is not a drain on a "fixed reserve."

Asserting the Green Bay waters historically were not walleye fisheries, Dr. Hile said an unexplained boost in walleye hatch in

New Ceilings Are Based On Cost Markups

April 30 Deadline For Changeover

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The nation's retail and wholesale grocers today set about shifting a huge volume of food items—costing the public $20,000,000,000 a year—to a new method of price controls.

They are under government orders to complete the transfer between April 5 and April 30.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) announced three regulations last night, putting about 60 per cent of all foods under fixed "markup" percentages which the agency said are those in effect before the Korean outbreak. A grocer adds the "markup" percentage to his cost in order to determine his ceiling price.

Depends On Farmers
Here is what the new system means to the country:

First, it means a great many up and down movements in food prices, depending on the store, the locality, and the kind of food. Price Director Michael V. DiSalle said "We are sure that there will be more decreases than increases."

That was cheerful news for the housewife, but DiSalle added that "a large part" of the net reduction in prices may be cancelled out if farm prices continue to move up.

Under present law, the wholesale and retail prices of most food products must be allowed to rise

France Fights For Democracy

Auriol Assures U. S. Nation Is Loyal

WASHINGTON — (AP) — French President Vincent Auriol today begins a campaign to dispel any American doubt about France's determination to arm—and fight, if necessary—in defense of western democracy.

His first formal American speech, arranged for a National Press club luncheon, is designed to stress that France is a dependable military ally and has no intention of "neutrality" in the east-west conflict.

This and more than a score of additional speeches scheduled for Auriol's one-week visit to the United States are expected to answer in forthright terms American critics of western Europe defense planning.

These critics, including some lawmakers, contend the European countries are depending too much on America to check the threat of Communist aggression.

Auriol received an enthusiastic ovation on his arrival here yesterday. Nearly a quarter of a million persons lined historic Pennsylvania Avenue to cheer him and President Truman.

GARDEN—Citizens Party: Clerk George Boudreau, Treasurer Ollie Hazen, Board of Review Edward J. Olson.

Cutters Return To Open Harbor

But Ore Shipping Is Still Indefinite

Returning today after slicing a channel to Escanaba 10 days ago, the Coast Guard cutter Mackinaw worked back and forth through rotting Little Bay de Noc ice in preparation for the start of the ore shipping season—still indefinitely postponed.

Accompanying the Mackinaw was the cutter Woodbine, reportedly assigned to stay at Escanaba to help hasten the clearing of the harbor.

Returning to Straits

Leonard C. Reynolds, C&NW Peninsula Division superintendent, said Coast Guard district headquarters office at Cleveland today advised him the Mackinaw would return to the Straits of Mackinaw, where ice has formed a bottleneck of the Upper Lakes.

Ice Moving Out

Little Bay de Noc ice was reported moving out this afternoon as the cutters Mackinaw and Woodbine sliced east and west channels across the bay. Commercial fishermen removed remaining smelt pound nets this morning.

The Woodbine will stay here to break channels and in particular to open up the slips alongside the two C&NW docks.

Lee McMillan, dock agent, said ice in the slips ranges from 18 to 20 inches solid. The slips will have to be cleared before boats could tie up for loading.

No Boat Scheduled

Meanwhile there is no definite word on boat schedules, no ore is being shipped to Escanaba from the mines, and negotiations are continuing in Chicago in efforts to settle a dispute between the C&NW and the Escanaba ore handlers.

The ore handlers served notice March 20 they would be absent until further notice. About 90 men are affected. They seek an agreement on hours that will pay time and one-half for work on Saturdays and Sundays. Last season they were paid $172½ an hour for 40 hours.

A temporary agreement was reached that would permit the return of the men if called by Saturday, when the temporary agreement ends. Unless the dispute is settled by that day or the temporary agreement extended the ore handlers will not return.

Bay De Noc To Vote On Bonds

$8,000 Would Finish Community Hall

Voters of Bay de Noc township will at the election April 2 also have before them a proposal to bond the township for $8,000 to complete construction of a community hall at Stonington.

The proposal is to increase the tax rate by 3 mills for 10 years, which will pay off the proposed $8,000 bond.

The community hall project has been endorsed by the Bay de Noc range, No. 1389. Grange members have already donated the site, an estimated $400 in free labor, and about 14,000 feet of lumber toward the project.

Only Legal Method
Attention of Bay de Noc citizens has been directed by the range to the fact that township sales tax diversion revenue cannot be used to complete the community hall or as collateral for the bond issue.

The only legal method to raise funds for such a purpose is to have a majority favorable vote on the proposed bond issue and millage increase, the citizens have been advised.

The Grange has entered the community hall project in the 51 National Grange Community Service contest sponsored in cooperation with the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. In 1949 the Grange project in the rehabilitation of Peninsula Point lighthouse took first place in Michigan in the national contest.

Project Endorsed
First prize in the national contest is $15,000, the second award $5,000, the third $2,000, and the fourth $1,000. The Grange has one on record with the pledge that any award funds received will go toward completion of the building and retirement of the bond.

Pointing to the need of a good community hall for the area, the township board and the Grange are urging all Bay de Noc citizens to vote on April 2. The Grange community hall project committee are as follows:

Building—Art Lorenson, Charles Peterson, Smer Thorsen, Art Sundstrom, Peder Pedersen; Contest—Art Sundstrom, Gustavsen and George Holmberg.

The township board comprises Peder Pedersen, supervisor; Emil Johnson, clerk; Rudolph Leadman, treasurer; Art Lorenson and Peder Granskog, justices of the peace.

THOSE IN UNIFORM
Private Robert J. Dufour, the son of Mrs. L. J. Dufour, 406 South 12th street, Escanaba, is undergoing on-the-job training as Supply Clerk trainee, at George Air Force Base, Calif., near Victorville.

Pvt. Dufour is assigned to the 1st Air Police Squadron, 1st Lighter-Interceptor Wing.

He enlisted in the Air Force Nov. 17, 1950 at Escanaba. He was then transferred to Lackland, AFB, Texas for indoctrination, and took his basic training at Sheppard AFB, Texas, before being transferred to George AFB in February.

Private Dufour attended grade and high school in Escanaba, and went to Michigan State College for one year, where he was majoring in physical education. While in school, Pvt. Dufour was prominent in athletics and the G-Y club.

Corp. Roger Richards, who was hospitalized at Osaka, Japan for about one month, then transferred to Camp Drake, Tokyo, has been transferred to Okinawa. He now is with the M. P.

Escanaba's University Of Michigan Family Makes News

NICHOLAS CHAPEKIS

FRED CHAPEKIS

TED CHAPEKIS

JAMES CHAPEKIS

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Chapekis, 808 Ludington street, which the community affectionately and proudly refers to as "Escanaba's University of Michigan family" is as active today as it was when the Chapekis name appeared in nearly every story of doings at Escanaba high school.

Two Michigan graduates, Fred and Nicholas, are advancing rapidly in their professions and the two Michigan students, James and Ted, are prominent in campus activities.

Just to bring you up to date on what has been going on:

Awarded Scholarship
James Chapekis, freshman and honor student at Michigan, won the University of Michigan scholarship when he graduated from Escanaba high school in 1950 and recently was awarded a $250 cash award from the Crappo scholarship fund at Michigan.

Ted, who is a junior in the Engineering college, is president of the Hiawatha club, an organization of Upper Peninsula students at Michigan. The engagement of Miss Cleo Vlachos of Kalamazoo to the young student was announced earlier this month at a family party at her home.

Fred, who is a graduate engineer, completing his course in 1950,

Stephenson To Hold Bus Driver School

A four day school of instruction for school bus drivers from the mid county area will be held in the American Legion Club-rooms in Stephenson. The program of instruction will be handled by Lee Duer and Leslie Silvernale. The instructors are associated with the Michigan State College and the Northern Michigan College of Education. The program is sponsored jointly by the colleges and the Department of Public Instruction.

The instruction will be given on April 2 and 3 and April 9 and 10. The sessions will open at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and adjourn at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Private Dufour attended grade and high school in Escanaba, and went to Michigan State College for one year, where he was majoring in physical education. While in school, Pvt. Dufour was prominent in athletics and the G-Y club.

Rose Bowl Films At M Alumni Dinner

Attorney Joseph P. Herbert, of Manistiquette, regent of the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker at the annual University Birthday dinner sponsored by the Delta county Michigan Alumni club Saturday night at 6:30 at the Delta hotel.

Members of the Schoolcraft county alumni club also have been invited to attend.

Charles Folio said movies of the Michigan-California Rose bowl game, color film of the Tournament of Roses and sound and color film of the University of Michigan band show between halves of the Michigan-Wisconsin football game last fall will be shown.

About 75 persons are expected to attend. Dr. John J. Walsh, retiring president of the club, will preside in the absence of Attorney William J. Miller, who is in Washington, D. C.

Cancer May Be Cured If It Is Detected Early

More Michigan people are being cured of cancer every year, because more cancer is being found early, when it can be cured.

This encouraging fact, the Michigan Department of Health revealed today in calling upon each Michigan family to evaluate its own "family cancer control program" during April, National Cancer Control Month.

Is your physician's office your cancer detection center?

Does every adult in the family have complete physical examinations, including cancer examinations, every six months?

Do the people in your family know the signs and symptoms of cancer which will help to save their lives?

Does anyone in the family who has a sign or symptom of cancer go to his physician for an immediate examination?

Are the women of your family planning to see the new cancer detection film "Breast Self-Examination" when a local health or women's club brings it to your community? The 15-minute, sound, color film, which may be borrowed from the Michigan Department of Health shows how a woman can protect herself from cancer of the breast by a simple self-examination once a month.

Cancer is an unruly growth of the body's own cells. It usually starts as a very tiny tumor or lump at one place in the body. The initial evidence is so slight that only periodic physical examination will find it. As time goes on the cancer increases in size and may extend into the surrounding tissues.

Sportsmen See Film, Consider Proposed Game Law Changes

A movie, "Fishin' For Fun", provided the entertainment and discussions of a number of proposed game and fish law changes occupied the business portion of the meeting of the Wolverine Conservation association at the Sheraton hotel last night. Wm. Duchaine spoke briefly on arrangements being made for the meeting of the national organization of outdoor writers to be held here in early summer.

Ben Hardesty, champion bait and fly caster who will give exhibitions here during the outdoor writers' meeting, was seen in the movie in some colorful fresh and salt water fishing sequences.

Approval of the club was given a proposal to shift the opening of the trout season to mid-May and make the opening simultaneous with that on pike. A suggested change that would reduce the creel limit on trout from 15 to 10 fish was also approved.

W. Emerson Scott, who presented the movie lecture "To the Arctic by Canoe" on Tuesday evening, was a guest at the meeting and spoke on deer herd management problems in the Lower Peninsula and in the state of Pennsylvania.

The Wolverines went on record as opposed to giving the conservation department full power to manage the deer herd.

Plans were made to invite conservation officers to future meetings to explain details of proposed laws dealing with enforcement measures. Al Gustafson was given an attendance award.

Gucky, superintendent of the Stephenson Public schools, will represent the teachers of Menominee county in professional and legislative problems.

Death Claims Hans C. Larsen

Early Day Resident 91 Years Old

Hans Christian Larsen, 91, of 315 South 13th street, who first came to Escanaba in 1880, died yesterday afternoon at St. Francis hospital.

Mr. Larsen, who worked on the ore docks when he first settled here, was in the pop business for many years. He sold the business in 1922 and went to Lancaster, Wis., where he was in the same business four years. He returned to Escanaba in 1926 and retired a short time later.

He was born in Ringsted, Denmark, August 18, 1859.

He was a member of the Danish Brotherhood and of Delta Lodge 195, F. & A. M.

Surviving are his wife and two sons and two daughters: Hans L. and Jack H., Chicago; Mrs. George Jacobsen, Columbus, Wis.; and Mrs. F. W. Webb, St. Paul.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home. Arrangements for the services will be completed tomorrow.

Draft Exemptions On Basis Of Scholarship Wrong In Principle

THE proposal of Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, the nation's draft director, that top-ranking students in high schools and colleges be exempt from military training is drawing a mounting tide of resentment around the country, as well it should.

The general's theory presumably is that the nation's best brains, as measured in terms of scholastic rankings in the high schools and colleges, should not be subjected to the hazards of military life.

The proposal, of course, is a slur on the American armed services by conveying the idea that only second rate brain power should be drafted for military service.

The plan is wrong in principle and wrong in application. It is contrary to American principles of democracy that a segment of our draft-age people should be exempted from service in the country's armed forces because of scholastic attainment. And it is wrong to assume that the bright boys of the classroom are necessarily the only hope of the nation for leadership in the future. An examination of American history will reveal that a large percentage of leaders in every field of endeavor have come from the ranks of average scholastic attainment. Leadership and success require more than the ability to absorb textbook knowledge.

It has been expressed by military experts time and again that American successes on the battlefield have developed because American soldiers are intelligent, that they possess the ability to think quickly in emergencies without waiting for directions to filter down from the high command.

If the future of America and the safety of our people is dependent upon the protection that the armed services can give us, it surely is essential that we build our army, navy and air force with the best manpower that we have available. We can hardly afford to place our lives and our heritage in the hands of those who have been chosen for service because they could not reach scholastically the upper one-third or one-fourth of their class.

Reds Learn That Aggression Is Costly

IT is now nine months since the North Koreans crossed the 38th parallel southward in the first real military aggression of the postwar period.

In that interval, the North Koreans have swept down to the Pusan beachhead, only to be caught from behind by the daring Allied landings at Inchon and routed. American and UN forces have driven the North Korean Reds north out of their capital at Pyongyang, toward the Manchurian border at the Yalu River.

The Chinese Reds have come to the North Koreans' rescue, to administer first a brief setback and then a major defeat to the Allies that sent them reeling out of North Korea, out of Seoul and other key Korean towns for the second time.

And last, the stubborn, grizzled, seasoned Americans and their UN comrades have again sliced the Communist enemy to pieces and hurled him back from all but a small fraction of South Korean soil. In a few spots UN advance units are across the 38th into North Korea once more.

So where do we stand?

After nine months of see-saw fighting, the dividing line between Communists and non-Communists is, roughly speaking, just where it was when the invasion started last June 25. In terms of territory, then, the Reds have gained exactly nothing.

But North Koreans and Chinese together have inflicted upwards of 55,000 casualties upon American forces in Korea, plus losses suffered by our Allies.

They have compelled the United States and other UN nations to spend heavily to maintain fighting forces far from their homelands. The U. S. especially has paid out to the tune of several billions of dollars.

If part of the Reds' purpose was to bleed us and hurt us, they have done it. But the damage they have done us is, relatively, a small thing compared to the havoc they have wreaked in Korea. Except for the Pusan beachhead area, South Korea is a flattened, blackened shambles. Large parts of North Korea are likewise leveled.

A great number of the 20,000,000 South Koreans are homeless and sunk in poverty. Who would pretend this is not a great price to pay for thus far successfully barring South Korea land to permanent Red control? It is a high price — written in blood, in pain and in broken hopes.

But what the free world has gained at that cost is no minor triumph. The forces of freedom, rallying nobly at the start, have shown that aggression cannot be cheaply practiced nor its fruits easily won when liberty-loving peoples are aroused to their peril.

For not only have the Reds failed to capture any soil for long; they have suffered casualties in the hundreds of thousands. Whole armies have been crushed or crippled. They have been stung by heavy blows whose impact has been felt in the shaky foundations of the fledgling Chinese Communist nation. And they will go on paying severely so long as they persist in lawless aggression.

The lesson should not be lost on the ruthless tyrants in the Kremlin. Free men who understand their danger cannot be trampled on. If you think they can, men of the Politburo, then count your meager gains after nine months against them!

GROWTH (Wall Street Journal)

Price Stabilizer Michael DiSalle has been pretty chary of promises but there is one thing he promises with confidence. That promise is a prophecy we are inclined to accept without question.

The Office of Price Stabilization, Mr. DiSalle said the other day, is growing by leaps and bounds. By next June he predicts that it will be at least four times its present size. It has already acquired 4,000 employees and by mid-summer will have 16,000.

Things just grow big in this country and they grow big fast. And there's nothing we know that flourishes more like the green bay tree than a government bureau.

About all that running around too much does for you is let you travel in circles.

One bad thing about steam heat is that dad can't toss everything into the radiator.

Fishermen

By Gordon Martin

There are many kinds of fishermen who have to have their fling, when the great outdoors is callin' in the days of early spring. Then 'tis time to check the tackle and of country trips to dream, and to hear 'ar the ripplin' of the water in the stream. And you wonder at the many views of those who want to fish, and what each considers heaven, could he have his anglin' wish.

Here's a guy who likes to exercise and wades the rushin' brook, hoping speedy trout will take the fly which covers up his hook. Here's a man who says the river holes for fishin' can't be beat, and don't give him that old fly-fish stuff—he's after bigger meat. Here's another who would troll about—a spinner is his choice, or a bass may take his plug and cause him loudly to rejoice.

So you ask yourself what kind of fishin' you'd prefer to do, and you know that you are quite content to view the fleecy blue, from just anywhere that you can lie a snoozin' in the sun, though you catch but few if any fish when all is said and done. But that smell of earth and things outdoors—that makes of you a king, and you welcome all the fishin' talk when comes the fragrant spring.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Here are a few facts not brought out during the crime committee probe of the glamor girl of the underworld, Virginia Hill:

Miss Hill first broke into prominence among the gangsters when she lived in the Chicago boardinghouse where Chicago's Joe Epstein, then a student in accountancy, also lived. Virginia, a restaurant waitress at that time, frequently brought coffee and cakes to the hungry Epstein. Later, when Epstein got out of school, he became an accountant for the underworld, also began helping Miss Hill.

She became a runner for the underworld, carrying money between racketeers in different cities. This was a precarious job. But Virginia was smart enough to keep an intimate diary locked in a vault with a record of the various financial transactions, and instructions that the files were to be made public if anything happened to her.

Mobsters on the lam trusted their money to her—a doubly dangerous assignment; for not only was it illegal, but it put Miss Hill's life in jeopardy inside the underworld.

The underworld, which lives by a code of its own, knew every time Virginia had a large chunk of cash. The mobsters also knew that if they robbed her, she couldn't report it to the cops. At least half a dozen times, therefore, Virginia was beaten black and blue, and her apartment ransacked in attempts by the underworld to steal loot from herself. In addition, Miss Hill ran the risk of being bumped off by her own pals to whom she could never prove she had actually been robbed.

Some televisioners thought Virginia Hill's life was a bed of roses. But it wasn't.

RAILROAD STRIKE IMPASSE

Only one issue has been holding up settlement of the long, bitter railroad strike—namely, the role of Presidential Assistant John Steelman as mediator. The railroads want the likable ex-Alabama college professor to arbitrate future differences, but the Railroad Brotherhoods want someone else.

One reason that labor won't accept Steelman is a secret memo that was intercepted from S. H. Pulliam to B. B. Bryant, who are handling the strike negotiations for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. This secret memo declares: "The rules will be Steelman's interpretations which are pretty much the same as the railroads'."

Note—Stelman, a former labor mediator, used to be popular with labor before he entered the White House. Now he has a slight grandeur complex, hankers to be head of the New York Stock Exchange.

FORRESTAL'S DIARY

The defense department has recently been urged to release the private diary of the late secretary of defense, James Forrestal, and to that end an edited version was sent to the joint chiefs of staff for approval. However, they dropped it like a hot potato.

Some of the hot spots that caused the joint chiefs to keep the diary suppressed are: Forrestal told how he came close to firing then Secretary of the Air Force Symington in the spring of 1948 for an unauthorized, pro-air force speech on the west coast.

Forrestal also complained of his troubles getting the three services to agree on war strategy and a defense budget. Twice he appealed to General Marshall to support increases in the military budget. The first time, Marshall was secretary of state and favored priorities for foreign aid instead. The second time Marshall urged that the extra money be spent for universal military training.

Forrestal also wrote bitterly of his distrust of the French and British. The diary has now gone back to the custody of the president's naval aide, Rear Adm. Robert L. Dennison.

SLOW ARMS SHIPMENTS

Britain's new Foreign Minister Herbert Morrison has complained to the American embassy that U. S. arms shipments are slow in arriving in Britain.

Morrison told Ambassador Walter Gifford, former head of American Telephone and Telegraph, that shipments are so far behind schedule that it is jeopardizing British plans to expand its army.

Morrison also apologized that his first official contact since taking over as foreign minister had to do with a complaint. But he emphasized that American arms are a matter of extreme urgency for Britain if the west is to plan a successful defense against Communism.

Escanaba—A huge portrait of Abraham Lincoln has been presented to Escanaba public schools by the Study club, in honor of Mrs. Jessie Lake Beath, founder of the club. The portrait will be hung in the foyer of William Oliver auditorium.

Gladstone—Mrs. J. H. Murphy was re-elected chief ranger of Sacred Heart Court 186 of the W. C. O. F., at the regular meeting last night. Other officers are Mrs. H. J. Norton, vice chief ranger; Mrs. S. J. Sword, recording secretary; Mrs. L. J. Weingartner, financial secretary; and Mrs. Joseph Martin, treasurer.

London—Enoch Arnold Bennett, one of the greatest literary figures of the present century, died here today at the age of 63. The famous novelist and playwright succumbed to typhoid fever following several weeks illness due to influenza. Bennett wrote about 30 novels and a dozen plays.

Anybody who didn't understand what good old-fashioned winter meant finally got the drift.

The Red Herring

Shortage of Wool, High Prices, Cause Heavy Shift to Rayons

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—The next time you go out to buy a pair of woolen trousers, you may come back with rayon.

Within the textile industry today, there is a controversy raging over why wool supplies are short and expensive. The answer depends on which expert you talk to.

Wool men say that it's just the old law of supply and demand, cut and dried. The supply of wool is short, the demand is fabulous and the result is high prices.

But talk to men in other textile branches and they'll give you a different story. They believe that the price rise has been carefully engineered by the wool industry itself. The reason: because manufacturers have been switching to synthetic fibers like rayon, and the wool industry had to raise prices to keep making money.

Both camps can give you convincing arguments; both back up their basic ideas with steady streams of statistics. They're agreed on only one thing—the price of wool is up, drastically. On the woolen side of the fence, you'll hear the price is up because:

1. Wool is short. America now imports 75 to 80 per cent of its raw wool. It must buy this wool on the open market in Australia and other sheep-raising centers. It must bid against other wool-hungry nations, including Russia which is a big purchaser. Such feverish bidding sends the price of the raw material up.

2. There was a drought in Australia, killing sheep and decreasing wool supply.

3. Labor costs have risen. The recent textile strike settlement is expected to boost woolen goods another 15 cents a yard.

4. Americans want, need and use more wool than ever before. In 1939, the per capita consumption of wool was 2.9 pounds. Now it is almost 5 pounds.

5. The Korean War has caused all the services to need woolen uniforms and blankets. The U. S. is also uniforming some of its allies, the South Korean troops and helping clothe some South Korean refugees. The Korean War has been an especially hard one on uniforms—our trapped and encircled soldiers left spare uniforms behind and needed replacements.

6. The government's control program is snarled, in the textile field. Controls are not adequate, speculation in raw wool is rife.

That's one side of the story, a side picturing an industry caught between the twin devils of a short supply and a big demand. But listen to other textile men and the story changes. They tell you the price is up because:

1. Wool has been declining in popularity for years. Rayons and rayon-blended-with-wool have invaded the once-sacred wool strongholds of suits, carpets, blankets, robes. Even before the Korean War, manufacturers could turn out a woman's suit for $25 in rayon that would cost $75 in wool. And women liked the idea.

2. Wool manufacturers see the handwriting on the sheep. Even the armed forces are considering switching from all-wool to blends and all-synthetics. The Air Force is right now testing rayon uniforms, even for winter wear.

PRICE TAGS on these suits are up, but the reason why is shrouded in mystery. It could be because of a natural economy law, or an unnatural business procedure.

3. The wool industry had to have more money, just as when the silk industry, back in the late 1930's, fought the rayon invasion by raising its prices. The silk industry lost.

And, in the words of one rayon manufacturer:

"This is nothing new in the textile industry. When you've got a fabric that begins to decline in potential, you create a shortage and you raise prices. I think that's what's happening with wool—there's plenty of wool, but the wool boys just say it's short and raise prices. If the market comes back, they'll dump it on the market. There's just—if you'll pardon the expression—pulling the wool over people's eyes. I'd pull the same stunt myself if I had to."

The wool people, of course, insist that all this synthetic talk is nonsense. They claim no synthetic fabric has even been invented that will be as good as wool, doing wool's job.

"Wool," says F. Eugene Ackerman, president of the Wool Bureau, "is the only necessary fiber to human beings. And right now we're living in a wool-hungry world."

The New York Times entered the wool-vs.-synthetic argument with an editorial called "Disappearance of 'All Wool.'" It pointed out, first, that "for more than five consecutive years world consumption of wool has exceeded world production."

Then it went on to predict that this year would find 30 per cent of blankets will be made of blends of wool and rayon. It said that half the summer suits last year contained rayon. And it concluded that rayon fabrics can do the job as well as wool, they're cheaper, and "what difference does it make whether or not their fibers were shorn from animals' backs?"

Answering the editorial, Ackerman of the Wool Bureau pointed out that it was the shortage of wool and the demand for it that had created "the present tight position in the most wanted types of apparel wools."

He said that the price of wool had gone up 284 per cent since 1939, true, but "almost three-fifths of this increase has occurred since the Korean adventure created an international war psychology."

And he concluded: "No one has yet been able to imitate or even approach wool's amazing, complex structure which is the basis of its exclusive properties."

The man buying a suit or the woman buying a blanket know that the price is higher. They may not be sure why, but perhaps it doesn't matter.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

NEW SCHOOLS—All over the country new schools are popping up like mushrooms after a spring rain.

There is a reason for this. Most of the school buildings in the nation are old. Some are dangerous fire traps as well as inconvenient and out-dated.

There is also the factor of growing enrollment, particularly in the grades. The bumper crop of World War II babies are arriving at school age.

Escanaba is currently undergoing an examination of its school facilities with an eye to the future. The board of education, with the cooperation of the bureau of school services, University of Michigan, is conducting a school needs survey.

TOP TO BOTTOM — Dr. Leonard V. Koos, professor emeritus, University of Chicago, was emphatic on one point in a recent visit to Escanaba.

He came here to talk about a community college for Escanaba—but left the warning that school development should be considered at all educational levels, grade school through high school into two-year community college.

The statement of Dr. Koos supported opinion already formed by the school board. Inclusive long-range planning for school development that would be accomplished a step at a time, always leading toward the ultimate in service to youth and the community, is the goal.

NATIONAL LEADERS—There are new ideas in school buildings and one of the leaders in the field of school design is the firm of Perkins and Will, Chicago. This firm has been retained by the school board for the Escanaba program.

Common sense should dictate that a school building should fit the needs of the children and the educational program. It is such a basically common sense approach that it was overlooked among school building architects until recent years.

Most of the older school buildings reveal effort toward impressiveness, regardless of use. Sensible people want shoes that fit their feet. No amount of expensive trimming will take the pinch out of shoes that fail to meet the basic test — functional comfort adapted to the feet that wear them.

Perkins and Will are designing "comfortable" schools. You will be interested in where they started and how they grew.

OUT OF THE WEST—The schools differ sharply from the monumental structures of the past.

You could call them "ranch style" if you wish, for their design stemmed from influences in the Southwest. The one-story schools have integrated the indoors with the outdoors to provide intimate, friendly, colorful classrooms that are bathed in natural light.

Bitterest critics say they look like factories. Proponents contend that functionalism is more important than looks.

Lawrence B. Perkins of Perkins and Will, who has visited Escanaba a number of times in connection with the proposed building program here, explained that unpretentious buildings make "the outdoors and the indoors all part of the same environment," and keep facilities at one level for convenience.

AND HOW THEY GREW—Perkins and Will alone have built 60 schools of this type in the Middle West. Interest in the design is so high that it is spreading nationally—and internationally.

A Perkins and Will school built at New Canaan, Conn., one of the first of its kind to be completed in the East, has been visited by educators and architects from 26 states and 11 foreign countries who are planning similar buildings.

The New Canaan school will house 475 pupils and is built on a 12-acre site. Sites up to 30 acres are being chosen in other communities, depending on the number of students and the school program.

The costly, monumental school building with 18-foot ceilings, narrow windows, fire-trap stairways and fancy trimming is a thing of the past.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby Jr.

WORDS TO WATCH

The pronunciation "SEE-kruh-tiv," for the word secretive, is the result of associating the word with the noun "secret." But "secretive" does not derive from secret. It is an adjective form from the verb "secrete." In short, one who is secretive is one who secretes his actions or intentions. Be sure to place the accent on the second syllable, thus: see-KREE-tive.

The word strenuous is not "STREN-yuss" nor "STREN-er-uss." Note how the word is syllabified: stren-u-ous. The "u" forms and second syllable and should not be obscured. Say: STREN-yoo-uss.

The word itinerary, "of or pertaining to a journey," should, in best American usage, have five syllables with accents on the second and fourth. Say: eye-TIN-er-AIR-ee.

Q. How should one pronounce the word "viz."? And what is its exact meaning?

A. "Viz." is the abbreviation for the Latin word videlicet, meaning "it is possible to see." How the "z" got into the abbreviation is a matter of speculation. Skeat (University of Cambridge) explains it thus: In old manuscripts and books videlicet was abbreviated "viet," which was misread "viz."

In business correspondence and legal use "viz." means "namely; to wit." If you must use the archaic term, pronounce it "vi-DELL-i-set," both "i's" short as in "sit."

From I. B. Boston: You slangy Americans! Fancy referring to a "pack of cards" as a "deck of cards!"

Answer: "Deck" is not American slang. Old boy. It's very correct. Old English. Your own Shakespeare wrote of a cheat at cards:

But, when he thought to steal the single ten,

Los Angeles: Please advise the correct pronunciation of the name Tucson. Is the "c" silent?—The Gang.

Answer: Yes. Say: too-SAWN.

Democratic Party Hurt By Television Exposés

By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON—Flowing out smooth as a ribbon, the voice of the announcer proclaims that Kefauver crime committee hearings to be the greatest show on the air. That it may well be, given the general state of radio in this year of our Lord 1951.

But it is a lot more than that. What you are watching on the television screen besides the give-and-take show of witness and cross-examiner is the further integration, and at a greatly accelerated pace, of the Democratic party.

The fundamental base on which the power of the party rests is the mass of the voters in the big cities. If the allegiance of these voters, through the medium of the city machines is weakened, then the future of the party is uncertain.

Losing Catholic Vote
The weakening process had already begun before the Kefauver committee took the center of the television stage. The sensational charges of Communism in government and the bungling way in which these charges were met by the administration shook the loyalty of many; and especially of faithful Roman Catholics in the cities, if only because of the church's sensitivity to the Communist issue.

Privately to friends and associates former Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland has blamed his defeat on the defection of voters in Baltimore and especially on the so-called Catholic vote. These were presumably the voters among whom the "area of doubt" could be most successfully exploited by the shrewd public relations experts directing the Republican campaign.

One of the leading diocesan papers in Maryland denied that this had been a factor, blaming the defection from Tydings on the rural counties. Far too much solidarity is attributed to religious and racial voting blocs. But when this has been said, it remains true that the strong impression prevails among many observers that the Communist issue has greatly weakened the allegiance of city voters to the Democratic machine. Polish Americans, for example, are acutely conscious of the "betrayal of Poland" as exploited by the opposition to the Truman foreign policy.

Now the Kefauver committee holds up to public view via this fantastic new medium of television relationships between the city machines and the underworld. It is not just the corruption that is exposed to view but the whole complex of city boss and tenement dweller, favor taker and favor giver, the Pendergast at the center and the loyal front man at the periphery.

Loyalties Shattered
What exposure does it do to that relationship and disrupt it. This is a Democratic investigating committee named by a Democratic Senate doing these things. The resentments spread far. They shatter loyalties that are not directly related to the corruption exposed.

A secondary effect of the Kefauver revelations is to shock the independent voter who constitutes anywhere from 20 to 30 per cent of the total. Owing no real allegiance to either party, the independent concerns himself with politics only on those sporadic occasions when he decides that "something must be done."

In the old days many of his kind were known as go-goos. They chose to ignore the more rugged aspects of the American political scene except at intervals when things got too bad and an urge for virtue touched off a brief crusade. Many years ago in the muck-raking era Lincoln Steffens and others exposed the relationships between power and pelf in American cities where the rich and respectable didn't want to bother about the sordid details of politics.

Turn Rascals Out
But the shocked citizen sitting before his television screen cannot ignore what he sees and hears. He wants to know who has been protecting these people. Why have they not been prosecuted for their crimes? What sinister power has enabled them to grow rich? It all adds up to that ancient political axiom: Turn the rascals out.

For many the time is long overdue when the Democratic party for its various sins and iniquities should have disintegrated. They thought that time had come in 1948.

But if the party is in reality now going to pieces like the onehoss shay, a large vacuum of power will be left behind. And what is to fill that vacuum is not quite clear as it was not clear in 1947. In fact, a good case can be made that it was this very lack that enabled President Truman to be re-elected in 1948.

Today many jubilant Republicans are beginning to feel that it doesn't matter what is offered as a substitute, the disintegration having gone so far that anything will appear acceptable as a substitute. And they may be right. But it would be hard to prove that this is a healthy condition in a moment of world crisis.

W-C Airlines Links Detroit

Joins With Capital Airlines At Milwaukee

Improved interline connection between Wisconsin and Michigan cities will be provided starting April 1 by Wisconsin Central Airlines under a revised flight schedule filed by the airline with the Civil Aeronautics Board and the post office department.

The new schedule makes convenient interline connections at Milwaukee for Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Saginaw, Bay City, Midland, Flint and Detroit.

The 3:30 p. m. flight leaving the Escanaba airport under the new schedule provides for a connection at Milwaukee with a Capital Airlines flight which arrives in Detroit at 7:20 p. m. and at Washington, D. C., at 9:30 p. m. Total elapsed flying time from Escanaba to Detroit is three and one-half hours.

The new flight schedule also provides for a one-hour interline connection with a Capital Airlines local flight serving eight lower Michigan cities including Detroit.

New Ceilings Set Up For Grocers On Markup Basis

When necessary to reflect higher farm prices, Disalle, facing reporters at a news conference, was asked whether he intends to recommend a change in the law to permit tighter food controls, and he replied, "We're not ready to answer that."

Second, the new system means that Disalle's OPS now has paved the way for definite dollars-and-cents ceiling prices, figured by the district OPS offices and posted on big charts in the stores.

Ahead of OPS officials said this was "the single most important aspect" of last night's action.

They said this system of "community pricing" may be reached in about six months. They said they'd like to order it immediately, because it is the most effective and enforceable system of price controls. But they said food prices, in reflecting fluctuations in farm prices, will keep going up and down so rapidly for a while that the posted ceilings might be out of date before the poster could be printed and tacked to the wall.

Meantime, officials said the new "markup" or "margin" regulations will keep food prices under effective controls for the next few months—except for changes reflecting farm price fluctuations. The OPS is following the same pattern that the wartime OPA followed—margin controls and then community prices—but the OPS, profiting by OPA experience, is considerably ahead of the OPA in its timetable.

Fresh Every Monday April 30 is the deadline for grocers to complete their change-over. Any time after April 5, however, a grocer may put each new ceiling price into effect as soon as he has computed it. After April 30, each retail grocer must re-figure his ceiling prices every Monday—that is on any item for which he had a different cost from the cost on which his existing ceiling was figured.

Under a previous regulation, April 30 is also the deadline for retailers of clothing and house furnishings to change to a new system of margin controls. The main difference is that those retailers must figure their own markup percentages by preparing "pricing charts", whereas the grocers have their percentages fixed by the government on 38 different food categories.

The three regulations cover canned goods, baby foods, flour, cocoa, coffee, tea, breakfast cereals, shortening, frozen fruits and vegetables, mayonnaise, rice, margarine, dog and cat foods, crackers, jams and jellies, syrups, and many other items.

Meats Separate They do not cover fresh meats, fresh fruits, fresh vegetables, sugar, milk, bread, ice cream, candy, soft drinks, or alcoholic beverages.

Many of these things—meats for example—will be covered by regulations of their own.

The OPS estimated the number of retail food stores at 560,000 and the number of wholesalers at 10,000.

Retail stores are divided into four groups, and so are wholesale firms. The percentages differ for the groups.

In general, small retail stores are allowed the highest markup percentages, as they were under OPA.

Smelt Start To Run Near Traverse City

LANSING—(P)—The first smelt run of the year and the first sizable perch run were reported by the state conservation department today.

The department said the silvery smelt had started to run in Ransom Creek south of Traverse City in Benzie county and the first good sized perch run was reported in Quinceville river in Tuscola county. The perch were reported to be "fairly good size."

Burglars Still Are Busy Here

Three More Firms Broken Into

Three more Escanaba business places were broken into by intruders last night but apparently nothing was stolen at any of the places.

The buildings entered are Nelson's Cash Store, 1301 Sheridan Road; Al Wiles tavern, 1316 Ludington street; and Delta Auto Parts, 1512 Washington avenue.

At the Delta Auto Parts desk drawers had been rifled and papers scattered over the floor. A bar across the back door had been pried off.

The intruders were not able to get beyond the basement at Al Wiles place. They entered the basement through a rear door. Two windows were broken at Nelson's Store but there is no evidence that entrance to the store was accomplished.

New Patrolman In City Police Department

Roy Christensen, 1211 First avenue south, has joined the Escanaba police department as a patrolman, it was announced this morning by Glenn Leonard, safety director.

Christensen is the fourth patrolman to join the police department in the past three weeks. The other three, previously announced, are Ed Gadnis, Ralph Johnson and Jim Tweedy.

Work Progresses On Main Extension

Work is progressing on the installation of a six inch water main extension to St. Thomas church on Ninth avenue north. City Manager A. V. Aronson reported this morning.

The extension is only about 180 feet from an existing main. The parish is paying the extra cost of installation necessitated by frost conditions, the manager reported.

DARRELL L. ANDERSON

Funeral services for Darrell Leonard Anderson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson of Isabella were held at 1:30 this afternoon at Bethany Lutheran church, Isabella, with Rev. Gustav H. Herbert of Manistique officiating. Burial was in Moss Lake cemetery. Music of the service included two hymns, "When He Cometh" and "Jesus Loves Me" sung by C. Arthur Anderson with Mrs. Peter Forslund, accompanist.

British Actress Will Portray Lady Godiva

COVENTRY, Eng. — (P) — A pretty British actress was chosen from a field of 117 today to reenact the famous ride of Lady Godiva on June 23.

The winning applicant is 28-year-old Ann Wrigg, a curvaceous Brunette.

Along the losers were seven Americans, including fan dancer Sally Rand who had cabled an offer to emulate the legendary nude center down to the barest detail.

Miss Wrigg is five feet four and a half inches tall, weighs 126 pounds, and has these measurements: bust, 36; waist, 26; hips, 37. "I applied for the job," she solemnly told reporters, "because I am mad about horses."

First strike in the United States was that of journeymen printers in New York in 1776, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

State Civil Service Hits Back At Little Task Force Critics

LANSING—(P)—The State Civil Service commission struck back today at a damaging "Little Hoover" commission task force analysis of its operations, calling it "prejudiced and erroneous."

The report was submitted to the citizens advisory committee of the joint legislative committee on governmental reorganization, known as the "Little Hoover commission."

The report, by Chairman William Palmer and Director Arthur G. Rasch, slapped back to Loren B. Miller, director of the Detroit bureau of governmental research and research director of the Hoover commission.

Branded Failure Miller had described state civil

Crash Victims In 'Fair' Condition; Kessler Released

Three of four victims of traffic accidents that occurred yesterday on fog-shrouded US-241 near Harris today were reported in "fair" condition at St. Francis hospital.

The fourth, Pat Kessler, 27, of 324 Stephenson avenue, was dismissed today to return to his home. Kessler sustained abrasions of the face and hands.

The others and their injuries are as follows: Nathan Zwierling, 41, of Chicago, severe lacerations of the forehead, fractured rib on the left side, injury to his left hand.

Arlan Arden, 40, of Chicago, compound dislocation of left thumb, severe lacerations, scalp wound on the forehead three inches long, many small scalp wounds, compound fracture of the little finger on the right hand with a severed tendon.

Zwierling and Arden are in surplus stores at Menominee and Marquette. They and Kessler were injured when their cars collided almost head-on.

Max Nerat, of Menominee, driver for the Steffe Freight Lines of Menominee, was injured when his truck overturned. He sustained a severe laceration of the right hand and the tendons of three fingers were severed.

Detroit Housewife Hammered To Death; Boarder Is Guarded

DETROIT — (P) — Police guarded a 52-year-old auto worker on his hospital cot today while waiting to question him about the bludgeoning slaying of a middle-aged Detroit housewife.

Mrs. Elizabeth Janoian, about 55, was found dying on her bed late yesterday. Shortly before George Ohanesian, her boarder, had gone to his landlady and blurted out:

"I've just killed a woman."

The woman's skull had been crushed with a hammer. Ohanesian was bleeding profusely from head wounds. Both were taken to Highland Park General hospital, where Mrs. Janoian died a short time later.

Homicide detective Sgt. Glenn Averill said Ohanesian apparently had inflicted his own wounds and would be questioned further before any charge was placed.

Parents Go On Trial For Baby's Murder

MUSKEGON — (P) — Ted and Crystal Smith went on trial here today charged with murder in the death of Mrs. Smith's three-year-old daughter whose body they admitted burying in their back yard.

An overflow crowd packed the courtroom where circuit judge Joseph F. Sanford will hear the case without a jury.

Carol Ann's body was found last Dec. 2 buried 12 feet in the ground at the Smith's former home in north Muskegon.

Police said an autopsy showed the child died from maltreatment and beatings.

Body Of Man Lost In Snowstorm Found Near Traverse City

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich.—(P)—The body of elderly John Panek, who disappeared in last Friday's springtime snow storm, was found yesterday near his farm home at Cedar, west of here.

Panek was driving with his son, Adam, when their car became disabled in the storm which swept the Traverse City area.

As the son went for help, Panek started a mile and a half hike to the farm. State police and a posse since had searched for him.

service as a failure and fraud upon its supporters. The task force was that 93 per cent of all state employees got their jobs without civil service examinations as provisional appointees.

Palmer accused Miller of a "studied attempt to propose" a change in the constitutionally-mandated civil service system.

He charged that Miller's conclusions in many cases conflict directly with the findings of Miller's own task force experts.

Miller, Palmer said, demonstrated a "complete distrust of the civil service employee and impugns such employee's loyalty to an unreasonable degree." This replied to Miller's proposal there should be more political appointees to give more political accountability in government.

Palmer said Miller proposed to make civil service a subsidiary agency, instead of impartial and independent. He said he doubted whether the legislature wanted the job of fixing salaries for all state employees, as Miller proposed.

Examinations Speeded Instead of 93 per cent of employees being provisional appointees, Rasch reported, on Feb. 10, 88.2 per cent of all employees had passed civil service examinations.

While the state payroll was increasing 4,135 in five years, the number of provisional employees had been reduced from 37.4 per cent to 11.8 per cent, Rasch said.

He declared that instead of lagging on its examinations, as charged, the commission had given 1,479 examinations in four years to 112,503 persons and qualified 60,301 of them.

Rasch said the task force accusations were based on a sampling of 1,000 appointments out of 40,000 and also failed to consider special conditions affecting employment, such as labor scarcities and the general high turnover in private employment.

Palmer said Miller declared Michigan has no civil service system really while the task force showed that it met all federal requirements. He cited a list of other charges by Miller which he said the task force refuted.

eyes and whitetail in the area.

Fred A. Westerman, chief of the state conservation fish division, said experts don't believe the 1950 record production of walleyes in Green Bay waters can continue, law or no law.

Dr. James W. Moffett of the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service, asked whether the heavy sports fishing pressure might not be as much or more damaging than the commercial fishing. He said commercial fishermen were barred from taking striped bass in California when they took 500,000 pounds in one year, but that later sports anglers took 8,000,000 pounds a year.

No Lamprey Angle All the biologists rejected a theory expressed by Evert W. Berquist of East Lansing, from Escanaba sources, that excessive impounding of walleyes in nets made them targets for lampreys and that walleyes if protected will destroy the young lampreys.

Jack Eden, Escanaba business man, said a "valuable economic resource was being improvidently depleted" and that the bill would permit its conservation for the continued benefit of commercial fishermen and the tourist industry.

He said one-third of the heavy commercial fishing influx came from Wisconsin fishermen whose own waters were depleted. The bill, he said, was designed to deter excessive fishing with damaging equipment.

Eden said the number of commercial license in Delta county increased from 78 in 1944 to 311 in 1949 and the catch from 18,866 in 1945 to more than 1,000,000 pounds last year.

William Felling of East Lansing, Richard Stoddard of Jackson and Rapid River, and Carl Matthews of Escanaba pled with the committee to curtail heavy commercial fishing to protect a valuable sports and tourist attraction. They said the Delta county resort business was badly hit by the falling off of the tourist business due to excessive commercial fishing.

Trap Nets Restricted Walter Olson, Gladstone commercial fisherman, argued that the walleye catch will decline eventually, but that the legal restrictions would linger on to hamper resident fishermen, while the outsider would have moved elsewhere.

The bill would restrict trap nets to a depth of eight feet instead of 15 and restrict pond nets to 50 feet of water. All trap nets would be forbidden from April 1 to May 20, during the spawning season and boats would be limited to eight trap nets each. All netting would be forbidden in four areas to be kept clear for sport trolling.

ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE—At least that's what this prize wool-producing English Roman sheep seems, as he poses with five-year-old Angelita Sorto at Punta Arenas, Chile. It's sheep-shearing time down at the southernmost tip of South America, where 2,600,000 of them are being rounded up for the clippers. This fellow gave 26½ pounds of wool contrasted with the average of 10 pounds. Most of it is exported to the U. S.

Barnes Upsets Chuck Hunter

DETROIT — (P) — Young Ray Barnes, a boxer who shuffles methodically and then opens up like a windmill from close range, emerged today as a new contender in the middleweight class.

The 22-year-old Detroit booster boosted his reputation by winning a unanimous 10-round decision over stiff-punching Chuck Hunter of Cleveland here last night.

But Barnes, who has lost only three of his 37 fights, faces the problem of finding opponents among the top-ranking middleweights.

Manager Pete Marudas said they shy away from him because they can't solve his unorthodox, boring-in style.

For the 2,354 fans at Olympia stadium and thousands at their television sets across the nation Barnes offered no spectacular show.

He just plodded in with his hands at the side of his face, took Hunter's lefts and rights, and then uncorked flurry after flurry of short punches.

It was slow work but it earned points on the scorecards of Referee Tom Briscoe and Judges Al Goodman and Bill Appleton. Barnes weighed 163½ pounds, Hunter 164½.

The fight grossed only $3,432.80 and was the smallest attendance and smallest gate in two years of promotion by the International Boxing club in Detroit.

MINNEAPOLIS — (P) — Basketball's law makers are studying possible rules changes today that would increase the severity of the penalty for a personal foul and also would change the college game from two 20-minute halves to four 10-minute quarters.

The joint rules committee, which establishes the code for the game, is made up of representatives from the NCAA, the high school federation, AAU, YMCA and the Canadian basketball group.

A questionnaire sent out by the committee brought answers to show that college and AAU coaches, where the game is played in halves, preferred the quarter system which prevails in high schools, the pro ranks and in some YMCA contests.

MSC Baseballers Seek Five In Row

COLUMBIA, S. C. — (P) — Michigan State college baseball team sought today to stretch its southern success to five straight games in the second of a two-game series with South Carolina.

State beat the southern school 4-3 yesterday on right-hander Tom Lawson's six-hit pitching.

The Spartans led 3-2 going into the ninth inning and picked up an "insurance" run when Joe Rivich walked, stole second, reached third on an error and came home when Captain Vince Magi singled.

The insurance turned out to be the winning score. South Carolina also scored in its half of the ninth but couldn't get the tying run across.

Michigan State, which has dropped but one game on the spring tour, collected eight hits. Each team made four errors.

Hire Soldiers Of Fortune

Mercenaries Would Fight Communists

By ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK—The original aim of Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge to recruit 25,000 aliens to serve as mercenary soldiers for the United States seems to have been considerably perverted in the process of implementation. We have bureaucratized that good idea right out of practicality.

As she stands today we will recruit 2,500 aliens, applications to be accepted in the western zone of Germany, but we will not admit German nations nor any other member of a land that signed the North Atlantic treaty.

We plan to use refugees from Communist-controlled countries. We plan to spend a lot of time, money and trouble checking them for security value. We plan to bring them to the United States for training. We plan to offer them citizenship if they are honorably discharged.

French Foreign Legion

Oh, brother. They now make a project of a very simple matter for some strange reasons known mainly to Americans, where you have to complicate the purchase of mercenaries with a lot of lip service stupidities when what you are really doing is hiring bodies to fight for pay and keep your own people from dying.

The French have always hated the Germans and the French Foreign Legion has always hired Germans, because Germans fight good on a salary. The French Foreign Legion has always made itself a haven for criminals on the lam, because criminals fight good. La Belle France never really concerned herself with the morals or the political beliefs of hired assassins when she had some Arabs to kill. All the legion ever asked was whether he could shoot straight, obey orders, and accept a handful of sous as a salary.

No Boy Scouts

When you recruit a mercenary army you are not establishing a boy scout troop. You are hiring killers who don't mind doing it for dough. There is not, necessarily, any quotient of nobility in it. You just make an offer to save lives of people you like better than some other people.

It is foolish to exclude the Germans, because Germans are great soldiers and there must be a few million trained men around who would like to make a buck by killing a Communist in whichever spot a Communist needs killing in. I recall that yesterday was the birthday of my friend Bill Moore who was killed heroically in Korea, and I wish it had been a German that I was paying dough for instead of Bill. Or any other American.

They speak of a security check on the 2,500 recruits to our American band of Hessians. You can't security-check 2,500 people with any degree of accuracy. I can't think of a cuter place for Communists to plant their own people than our new commercial army—

Bell Telephone Releases Annual Earnings Report

DETROIT—The Michigan Bell Telephone company today reported 1950 earnings of 6½ cents on each dollar invested in the business for its best return since 1946.

In their annual report, Board Chairman Ben R. Marsh and President John A. Greene emphasized that the company's average earnings since 1945 have come to only 5.2 cents on the invested dollar. The improved return for 1950, they said, still was only about half the average earnings of other industries "with which we must compete for capital."

"For many years," the report continued, "the company has struggled with the financial problem of making sure that revenues cover all costs of doing business, including an adequate return for investors. An adequate return must be assured because that's the only way we can get additional money from investors—money we need to provide the service Michigan people want and need."

"Our earnings are too low, in these prosperous times, to protect the company's financial health and safety, and to assure readily-available, high-quality service in the coming years."

It was a record year in almost every category—more calls and telephones, higher revenues and expenses, and greater taxes.

Praising the company's 22,000 employees as its "greatest single asset," Greene pointed out that one of their biggest jobs during the year was to meet the increasing military, war-production, and civilian-defense needs.

The company reported net income of $17,947,840, a $7,000,000 increase over 1949. Dividends of $6.25 were paid on the 2,200,000 shares of common stock, an increase of 75 cents over 1949.

Michigan Bell customers placed a record number of 9,800,000 calls per business day, an increase of 700,000 a day over 1949, and the number of telephones in service climbed to 1,841,000—90,000 more than in the previous year.

Betting Commissioner At St. Louis Accused Of Hiding Payments

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—James J. Carroll, St. Louis betting commissioner was charged with failure to report payments totalling $56,688.15 that he made in 1948 and 1949 to winning bettors and in commissions.

The informations were filed on instruction from Sam M. Wear, United States district attorney, under a little known and rarely enforced portion of the internal revenue law which requires reporting of payments made to other persons of all amounts of more than $600 on which federal taxes are not withheld.

Carroll was summoned before the Kefauver Senate committee investigating crime when the committee appeared in St. Louis recently. He walked out of the hearing because he objected to televising of the questioning.

ROYAL
Most in Tire Quality
...and Service

More Valuable Now Than Ever Before

Every day that passes sees these wonderful U. S. Royals increasing in value to their owners. To every owner they have become precious, if not priceless, deserving all the care and attention they receive. They are the tires that practically revolutionized all modern automobile riding and driving. They give the genuine and original Air Ride design and construction—they are the only AIR RIDE tires in the world. For several years, the enormous public demand for these tires has taxed all possible supply. With every shipment, orders are being filled. With every order, a new and lasting friendship is established. Wherever you live or wherever you are—if your U. S. Royal Dealer can't fill your order for new U. S. Royal tires immediately, he can render complete, responsible service on your old tires toward keeping you in safety and comfort till your new tires arrive.

Special Notice Royal Master Owners!
Those great Mid-Century Masters of yours can remain fresh and new in safety when other tires are giving up their lives. Their great tread depth permits complete renewal of the Royaltex Safety Tread treatment again and again, without recapping or anything of the sort. It takes about an hour's time (at your U. S. Royal Dealer's).

CHINCHILLA HAT—Undoubtedly the most expensive hat in the local Easter parade and probably one of the most expensive hats this side of New York or Hollywood, was the hat worn in the annual Easter stroll by Miss Phyllis Rademacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rademacher of Ford River. Made of that silken, exclusive and very costly fur, the chinchilla, the hat is a striking creation fashioned by one of the local dressmakers. Designed in pill-box fashion with a high crown in front, sloping to a low crown back, the hat is both demure and aristocratic. Two pelts were used for the hat and that would make it—let's see—at the rate of $75,000 for a coat for Rita Hayworth which was made with approximately 250 or 300 pelts—yes—undoubtedly it IS the most costly hat in our Easter Parade.

Wife Holds Trump Cards Against The 'Other Woman'

By RUTH MILLETT
Most of the letters that come to me from wives facing the "other woman" problem—and they are surprisingly numerous—have one thing in common. The wife is convinced the "other woman" is in the superior position.

That's the worst mistake a wife can make. The "other woman's" advantages in the situation depend almost entirely on what the wife hands her on a silver platter.

The wife may indulge in scenes and decide that because she has been betrayed she will make life as miserable for her husband as possible and wallow in misery herself. Doing that she hands to the other woman the role of the understanding, sympathetic companion the husband will turn to when life at home seems unbearable. That's a tremendous advantage right there.

Recklessness Are No Help
If the wife decides to let her husband know just what kind of a no-good she thinks he is and to go over and over his faults and failings she has handed the other woman another powerful advantage.

The other woman can be the one who restores his damaged ego and helps him kid himself into thinking he isn't a failure, but another misunderstood husband.

If the wife decides her pride is the most important thing in life and that the only way to keep her pride intact is to divorce her husband she is giving the other woman the greatest advantage of all. She is, in fact, practically handing over her husband.

A smart wife doesn't give the other woman any advantages at all, for she realizes that unless she hands some over to her the other woman isn't in a very good spot. Instead, she asks herself: "What advantages have I that she doesn't have?" and not only hands on to them but makes the most of them.

That way she is her own best friend instead of the other woman's unwitting ally.

C-C Secretary Leaves April 1

Resignation Is Accepted Tuesday

The resignation of William H. Frederick as executive secretary of the Top O' Lake Michigan Chamber of Commerce was accepted at a special meeting of the chamber's board of directors Tuesday afternoon.

The resignation is effective April 1 at which time Frederick will accept a position with the United States Chamber of Commerce in the Milwaukee-Green Bay area. His temporary headquarters will be in Green Bay.

Leonard J. Harbick, chamber president, reported yesterday that an effort is being launched immediately to engage a new secretary. Two important programs now underway—the new industry campaign and the resort folder program—will not be affected by the resignation, he said, as both movements are now far enough along for individual committee members to carry them through.

Frederick presented his resignation last week but agreed to reconsider the matter and give the chamber a definite answer over the weekend.

Mrs. Frederick and son, Ricky, will remain in Manistique until the current school term ends.

Auxiliary Names New President And Vice President

A new president and vice president were elected and installed by the Manistique American Legion auxiliary at its regular meeting Monday. Mrs. Joseph LaMuth was advanced from vice president to president, filling the vacancy caused by the recent death of Mrs. John Grimsley. Mrs. William Cowman was named vice president.

The two new officers were installed by Mrs. Frank Pavlot.

The group also voted to establish a voluntary memorial fund in memory of Mrs. John Grimsley, and decided to donate the auxiliary charter at the next meeting on April 9. The charter is to remain draped for 30 days in memory of Mrs. Grimsley.

Mrs. Alex Cooper, welfare chairman, reported that food baskets had recently been donated to two needy families here.

Cards were played at the conclusion of the business session with prizes being awarded as follows: 500, Mrs. Ross Collier and Mrs. Dave Cooper; bunco, Mrs. Laura Gustafson and Mrs. Charles McQuay; canasta, Mrs. Joseph Davis and Mrs. C. W. Jackson.

Lunch was served later by the following committee: Mrs. George Huber, Mrs. John Hewitt, Mrs. Chester Rivers and Mrs. Fred Homer.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be announced later.

Clubwomen Hear Play Review By Green Bay Woman

An interesting review of the play, "Wisteria Tree," was given at the regular meeting of the Manistique Women's club Tuesday afternoon by Corinne Wagner, of Green Bay.

The speaker also reviewed current Broadway plays, presenting a synopsis of them and a brief account of participating actors.

Two trumpet solos by James Monroe, "Friends" and "My Buddy Polka," provided the musical part of the program. The accompaniment was played by Janet Dixer.

Hostesses for the session were Mrs. Donald Hoholik, chairman; Mrs. Barney Johnson, Mrs. Ellsworth Curran, Mrs. D. M. Creeger, Mrs. John Hanson, Mrs. John Kelly and Mrs. E. T. King.

Survey Reveals Many Farmers Plant Weed Seeds, Reid Reports

Chemicals or other methods of weed control are not the complete answer to the weed problem in the Upper Peninsula. They are a help, says Clayton D. Reid, Schoolcraft-Alger county agricultural agent, but we should also quit planting weed seeds. Reid quoted from the summary of results of a drill box survey of seed oats made in the Upper Peninsula during the spring of 1930.

In this survey 79 samples of seed oats were taken directly from the grain drills in operation in the fields in 13 Upper Peninsula counties. These samples were analyzed and tested for germination by S. C. Hildebrand, of the farm crops department at Michigan State College.

Noxious weed seeds (quack grass or wild mustard) were found in 34 samples. Other common weed seeds found were: wild buckwheat, lady's thumb, lambs quarters, barnyard grass and fox-tail grass. More than ten weed seeds per pound of oats were found in 61 samples. The high was 2054; low, 0; and the average was 19 weed seeds per pound of oats. "Eleven samples had none."

7 From Schoolcraft
Seven of the above 79 samples were taken in Schoolcraft county. Only two of the seven had less than 10 weed seeds per pound. All but two samples of seed had relatively large numbers of other crop seeds. All but two samples had germination tests below 90 per cent. One sample was of a variety not recommended because of its susceptibility to disease. The average number of weeds per pounds of oats were 25 with a high of 856 and a low of 0.

None of the samples taken in Schoolcraft county would meet certification requirements even though the seed may have come from certified seed, Reid reported. Certified seed, besides having been grown from foundation seed, must have a germination test of 90 per cent or above, be free of noxious weeds, have not more than 10 other common weed seeds per pound, and have not more than five other crop seeds per pound.

Of the samples taken in Schoolcraft county the two which had acceptable germination both had too many other crop seeds and on had far too many weeds. Of the two with acceptable weed counts, both had too many other crop seeds and one had low germination. Of the two with no crop mixture both had too many weed seeds and both had low germination.

One Step Neglected
From this survey it can be concluded that quite a few farmers are neglecting one important step in weed control—the planting of weed free seed grain. Since eleven of the 79 farmers had no weed seeds in their grain it may logically be assumed that seed grain can be cleaned up satisfactorily, Reid pointed out.

As a corrective measure for this general condition, county agent Reid suggests: (1) A thorough cleaning of home grown seed over a fanning mill or at a commercial seed cleaning establishment, or (2) purchase of certified seed grain which must be free of noxious weed seeds and must not have more than ten other weed seeds or five other crop seeds per pound.

Colored Film Of Arctic Canoe Trip To Be Shown Friday

An outstanding lecture and colored motion picture program will be given at 9 a. m. Friday at an assembly in the high school auditorium when Wm. Emerson Scott, of Caro, Mich., presents "To the Arctic by Canoe."

Scott, well known as a lecturer and traveler, made the canoe trip to the Far North last summer by canoe from Saginaw to Aklavik, Canada's Eskimo capital deep inside the Arctic Circle. His trip took him four months and six days.

Scott and his companion made the return trip by airplane in four days.

Colored films of scenic views and northern animal and bird life were taken by Scott during his journey into the northern wilderness. Included were the reindeer roundup, a successful whale hunt with Eskimos, Indians and white trappers, and numerous views of the primeval lakes, mountains and tundra of the north.

The public is invited to attend the program.

Transferred—M/Sgt. Everett Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Collier, of Manistique, has been transferred from the Pentagon, Washington, D. C., to Lexington, Ky., where he will be a signal corps instructor in the University of Kentucky. He expects to be stationed in Lexington about two years.

Car Accident—Cars belonging to Vertal Schnurer, Route One, and Bert Gemmill, of Gulliver, were involved in an accident at 6 p. m. Tuesday on old US-2, north of Gulliver. Damage to the extent of about $75 was done to each car. According to Manistique state police, the Gemmill car crashed into the Schnurer machine, which was parked along the highway. Gemmill told police his tie rod broke, throwing his car out of control. Gemmill was traveling south on the highway.

Cooler Rebuilt—The cooler of the Nelson Cloverland Creamery company has been rebuilt and the plant again is back in the production of ice cream, it is announced by Walter Nelson. During the four weeks that the cooler was being rebuilt the firm had its ice cream manufactured and packaged by an outside concern. The rebuilt cooler is larger than the old one and makes it possible to market ice cream within 24 hours of its manufacture. First locally made ice cream in four weeks appeared on the market Wednesday.

Attends Funeral—R. G. Hentschell left this morning for Minneapolis where he will attend

Local Speech Event Friday

Public Is Invited To School Program

A local forensic contest, with competition in oratorical declamation, original oratory, and the finals in the junior high school dramatic declamation, will be held Friday evening in the high school auditorium, starting at 7 o'clock.

Winners in the oratorical declamation and oratory contests will represent Manistique high school in these two events at the district forensic meet, scheduled to be held in Newberry, it is announced by Marvin Fredericksen, high school speech director.

The meet had previously been announced for Munising where it was held last year. No contests are slated for senior high school dramatic declamation or extemporaneous speaking, Fredericksen reported, because of insufficient entries to necessitate elimination.

William Corson is the only student entered in extemporaneous speaking, and Ann McGlothlin and Margo Viergever are the only entries in dramatic declamation. All three are eligible to enter the district meet.

Constantans for the local event follow:

Oratorical declamation: Margaret Quick, Ellen Heideman, Phyllis Garvin, Margaret Cowman, Janet Fagan, Carol Martinson, Helen McGlothlin, Catherine Barker, Nick Babladelis, Carol Dybevik and Helen Charron.

Original oratory: Joan Norberg, Joyce Martinson, Laura Pizzala, John Wedell and Janet Dixer.

Junior high contest: Pat Lindberg, Donna Larson, Beth Ann Viergever and Carol Heideman. Winners of this contest will receive awards but will not be eligible to compete in the Newberry district meet.

The public is invited to attend the forensic program.

Local Soldier Hurt In Korea

Sgt. Ace Collier Hit By Grenade

Sgt. Ace Collier was wounded in action in the fighting north of Wonju, Korea, on March 15, it has been learned by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Collier.

In a letter to his parents, received Tuesday, Sgt. Collier said that a Chinese hand grenade exploded near him, wounding him in both hips, his right leg, back and face.

The wounded Manistique soldier was taken to Wonju by litter, jeep and ambulance and then transferred in a Greek airplane to a Swedish hospital in Pusan. He expected to be transferred to a Tokyo hospital in a few days, he told his parents.

Sgt. Collier was recalled to military service last October as a reservist. During World War II he served with the 9th army and took part in the heavy action along the Rhine river. He is now with the 2nd division of the 38th infantry.

Tax Cuts British Cigarette Smoking

LONDON—(AP)—Taxes on cigarettes are cutting Britain's smoking. With a pack of 20 costing three shillings and sixpence (48 U. S. cents)—about two shillings and nine-pence of that tax—demand is falling off, manufacturers report. But the demand is still greater than the supply.

Efforts to produce a cheaper cigarette but with the same tobacco by using filter tips are described as "pretty discouraging."

Dollar restrictions are forcing some firms to increase their proportion of non-dollar tobacco. A few years ago the proportion was 30 per cent non-dollar tobacco to 70 per cent dollar, but now the ratio is nearer 40-60.

National Forest Timber For Sale

Sealed bids will be received by the Forest Supervisor, Escanaba, Michigan up to 2:00 p. m., E. S. T., April 30, 1951, and will be opened immediately thereafter, for all the live timber marked or designated for cutting, and all merchantable dead timber located on an area embracing about 27 acres in Sections 12 and 13, T. 42 N., R. 20 W., Hiawatha National Forest, estimated to be 111 cords of peeled aspen pulpwood, 12 cords of balsam fir pulpwood, 33 cords of spruce pulpwood, 100 cedar tie cuts, and 300 seven foot cedar posts, more or less, together with small unestimated amounts of other species and products. No bid of less than $1.00 per cord for peeled aspen pulpwood, $5.50 per cord for balsam fir pulpwood, $8.00 per cord for spruce pulpwood, $0.15 each for cedar tie cuts, and $0.04 each for seven foot cedar posts will be considered. Bids in excess of maximum permissible rates established in conformity with ceiling price regulations will be reduced to such maximum permissible rates. Such permissible rates will be announced as soon as determined and in event it is not possible to make such determinations before bidding date, such date will be postponed. A deposit of $200.00 must accompany each bid to be applied on the purchase price, refunded or retained in part as liquidated damages according to the conditions of the sale. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. Before bids are submitted the marked and designated timber should be examined and full information concerning the timber, conditions of sale and submission of bids should be obtained from the Forest Ranger, Rapid River, Michigan, or from the Forest Supervisor, Escanaba, Michigan.

Library Given Money For Books

Juvenile Volumes Are Now On Display

The Gladstone School and Public Library has received a gift of $550 from the Hancock Memorial Fund of the Child's Welfare club and the money has been used for the purchase of books for the children of the first five grades.

A portion of the money has been allotted to the Buckeye school to help with the establishment of a library for the children of that school.

The gift is the third received by the library from the welfare club.

The first shipment of books, about one hundred, has been received and the volumes are now on display at the library. They will be ready for circulation next week.

Books selected for this collection include some of the best of the current children literature as well as some attractive editions of the children's classics.

Smear Banquet Sunday Evening

Teams captained by Pete DeMenter and Wilfred Royer will play off for the championship in the Holy Name smear tournament Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in All Saints parish hall.

Going into the final round of the second half Monday evening, August Boden's quartet had a commanding lead and looked like a cinch to win but Dr. A. A. Hollick's crew walloped them 58 to 39 while DeMenter was scoring 73 and he copped the second half to go into the playoff.

In addition to the playoff for the title there also will be a playoff between teams captained by Andy Vargo and Claude Alwor den for consolation prize. The banquet which climaxes the tournament and at which prize will be awarded the winners will follow the playoff on Sunday.

Gambler To Bare Big Ten Referee Under Suspicion

CHICAGO — (AP)—A Milwaukee sports gambler says he will tell Big Ten Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson the name of a Western conference basketball official he accuses of "irregularities," and back up the charge with "iron-clad proof."

The admitted gambler is Sidney A. Brodson. He testified before the Kefauver crime committee in Washington, D. C., last Saturday about his, and other gamblers' suspicions of a Big Ten official.

Wilson said he is willing to meet Brodson in Chicago to discuss the allegation. He has asked the crime committee for a copy of Brodson's testimony made under oath to review before the meeting.

Will Co-operate
"The fact that the 'suspicions' of an admitted gambler have been given wide attention and distribution is very regrettable," said Wilson. "I, as commissioner, am determined to investigate the entire matter as rapidly and thoroughly as possible and I am already in contact with the Senate committee."

Brodson said in Milwaukee last night that he is willing to disclose the official's name to Wilson and "would like to cooperate as much as possible."

The Big Ten uses 27 or 28 "various" officials during the basketball season.

Brodson said he can "supply iron-clad proof to Mr. Wilson of this official's irregularities."

"I prefer to delay the meeting for a week or two—I am on the front page right now and would like to get off," Brodson said.

Brodson explained one reason for his suspicion.

"Although it was almost impossible to learn until late on the day of a game what Big Ten officials were assigned to work," he said, "I noticed that always around 4:30 p. m. there was a lot of betting on the game the suspected official was working."

"Most of the money came from the east. This happened so often when this referee was assigned a game that I became suspicious and would lay off his games. There were many other gamblers who did the same."

Al Rosen, Cleveland Indians third baseman, is demonstrating that his brilliant 1950 performance was no flash in the pan.

Rosen startled the rail birds last year by belting 37 home runs to lead the American baseball league in his first complete season.

Previously, he had operated in the shadow of Ken Keltner.

This spring Rosen is making merry in grapefruit league play. In a recent spurge he banged out 11 hits, including two homers, a triple and four doubles, in 14 trips to the plate.

Assist To Hank
Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg draws an assist for Rosen's spectacular batting rampage. Greenberg suggested that Rosen edge a bit closer to the plate to correct a weakness against change up pitches on the

Eskymo Coach Lauds Trojans

Coach Steve Baltic of the Escanaba high school cagers paid high tribute last night to St. Joseph high school basketball players at a recognition banquet in the parish hall.

Baltic lauded the Trojans as a fine bunch of boys and a top-notch basketball team.

"They probably were a little too good at times—I should know, as they beat our team quite decisively," said Baltic.

Baltic discussed the current scandals involving basketball and said he was confident the game—the only major athletic contest originated in the United States—was big enough to survive the gambling threats.

"Basketball is changing constantly," he said. "It is suffering growing pains but remember

College Hires Saginaw Coach

MT. PLEASANT — (AP)—Central Michigan college today named Kenneth (Bill) Kelly, now coach at Saginaw Arthur Hill high school, as its new head football coach.

Kelly, a 1930 Central Michigan graduate who won 13 varsity letters, replaces Warren Schminkel, who resigned several months ago to resume an assistant coaching job at Miami university, Miami, Ohio.

At Arthur Hill, Kelly has been both football and basketball coach. His basketball teams have won seven Saginaw valley league titles in nine years, and the state class A championship in 1944.

His overall football coaching record, since he started at class C Cass City in 1930 is 128 victories, 47 defeats and eight ties.

He coached at Cass City from 1929 to 1938, and then went to class B Mt. Pleasant before coming to Arthur Hill in 1942.

Kelly will finish out the school year at Arthur Hill.

Communication

To The Sports Editor:

Thank you for the recent honor your organization (Upper Peninsula Sportswriters Association) bestowed upon me. I am pleased, but genuinely embarrassed, with the title "Coach of the Year" in the Upper Peninsula.

We at Brimley have been privileged to work with an unusual group of boys. I firmly believe that the quality of coaching makes little difference in a team's success. Unless the material is on hand, unless you "have the horses," no coach can win a championship.

It is the boys and not the coach who should be so honored. I am sincere when I make this statement. I want you and your organization to know I am deeply gratified by this honor, but I do not hesitate to give to our team—and to their parents—full credit for the record of the Brimley Bays during the past two years.

Yours truly,
Karl Parker,
Coach, Brimley Bays.

that 20 million athletes are playing basketball in 60 countries of the world. That is too big for any little gambling scandal to kill the sport."

Coach Tom St. Germain praised his boys for their team play and fine spirit. He said those were two principal factors in the 17-3 record made by the team this year.

He awarded letters to Capt. Don Paulin, Alfred Dufour and Jack Courneene, seniors; Bill Baker and Pete Kutches, juniors; and John Martinac and Jim Gravelle, Fred Boddy, Bob Sendenburgh, sophomores. Student Manager John Gregory also was awarded a letter and Jim Zimmerman, freshman, received a medal for participating in the Parochial tournament at Calumet.

Letters Awarded

Cheer leaders receiving letters were Betty Sullivan, Mary Jean Bink, Betty Lou Massard, Delores Lavolette, Sue Brunelle, Marge Rademacher, Eleanor Paulin and Mary Laundre.

Members of the girls' basketball team who received letters included Marie Koster, Sue Grenier, Joan Jaeger, Catherine Loeffler, Delores Lavolette, Mary Ellen Laundre, Margie Rademacher, Sue Brunelle, Donna Savard, Joan Ferrari, Elaine Snow and Pat Rooney.

Jim Coon, president of the St. Joseph Booster club, was toastmaster. Fr. Stephen Schneider, pastor, led the group in games and contests. Dancing wound up the evening.

Local Fighters In Manistique Show

Four or five Delta county boxers are expected to compete in the CYO boxing show being staged Monday night at the new gymnasium in Manistique.

A crack show has been lined up with fighters scheduled from Manistique, Marinette, Escanaba, Gladstone and Rapid River. Many of the fighters are Golden Gloves champions.

Escanaba fighters expected to compete include Rod Lindstrom, middleweight, Harry Sundman, bantamweight, and Ronald Magnuson, featherweight, all Golden Gloves champions.

Jack Sutter of Gladstone, unopposed novice Golden Gloves heavyweight champion, and Jacob Hewitt of Rapid River, a light heavyweight, also are expected from Delta county.

Other top-notchers on the show include Francis Selling, Paul Crawford and Wayne Tufnell of Manistique.

The show is under the direction of Ed Toyra, Manistique boxing leader.

Michigan Baseball Outlook Dim

ANN ARBOR — (AP)—The outlook isn't exactly good for Michigan baseball coach Ray Fisher. All he needs is a pitching staff, three infielders and two outfielders.

For eight of the past 10 years Fisher-coached baseball teams have either won or shared the Big Ten title and his 30 years at Michigan have earned him a reputation as a great developer of diamond talent.

But he'll be tested with the current squad that boasts but six lettermen, only half of whom are classed as competent veterans.

Catcher Pete Palmer, third baseman Gerry Dorr and outfielder Leo Koceski constitute the tried and true unit of the 1951 squad.

U. P. Boy Is Pitcher

Bob Larsen, Quinnesec, left hander, and right hander Al Virgona of Detroit both won letters last year on limited experience. Lincoln Painter had some experience behind the plate.

From there on, it's a toss up.

Fisher hopes to build his infield around Dorr. Junior Frank Puntich, brother of Michigan's football quarterback, is a good prospect. Being judged with him are Al Weygandt, a senior first base possibility, and sophomore second baseman Gil Sabuco and short stop Bruce Hayman.

Banks On Griddler
The Michigan coach has confidence in Frank Howell as an outfield prospect. Howell, husky halfback from Muskegon Heights, broke his arm during the football season but is ready to go now.

With him are Gerald Harrington, Bob Dunbar and Paul Fancher. All three are sophomores.

Hal To Pitch; Hoeft To Stay

LAKELAND, Fla. — (AP)—Hal Newhouse takes another stand on the mound today in preparation for the big one.

The blond Detroit Tiger southpaw, slated to pitch on opening day April 17 against Cleveland, was to get in a tuneup against the Cincinnati Reds in exhibition play.

Red Rolfe, Detroit manager, said Newhouse and Ted Gray would share today's pitching duties as the Tigers make another attempt to better their Grapefruit league record of three victories and nine defeats.

Trio To Stay

Cincinnati is one of the three teams the Tigers have managed to beat. Detroit had an open date yesterday.

Manager Rolfe announced that rookies Wayne Mc Leland, Bill Hoeft and Hal Daugherty would be kept with the Detroit club when it heads north next week.

The three are the pick of the Tiger rookie crop, and all are rated a good chance to make the roster.

If Hoeft succeeds, it would be a next to phenomenal achievement. Eighteen-year-old Billy played last season with a class D team, and that's his only organized baseball experience.

But his fast ball, control and general effectiveness made such an impression on Rolfe that the manager said he wants to give Hoeft "three more looks" before deciding definitely on his 1951 future.

The former won 21 games for Dallas in the Texas league last season and has made a fine spring showing. Third Baseman Daugherty is getting a good workout right now while George Kell is recovering from a spike wound and is expected to be kept around as a utility infielder to replace Eddie Lake.

Daugherty has trained with the Tigers several springs but has shown marked improvement this year. Last season he played with Little Rock, Ark., and batted .251. A shoulder fracture suffered the first day of the season kept him out for five weeks and hampered his batting, but he now seems completely recovered.

Rollins Injured
Less than a minute after the Leafs, who finished second in the league standings to Boston's fourth, lost the services of their fine rookie netminder for about the next 10 days. Rollins strained a knee ligament when he charged out almost to the blue line to knock a loose puck away from Pete Horeck.

Veteran Turk Broda, who has split the Toronto goaltending job with Rollins this season, finished the game.

The goal Broda allowed came at the 1:12 mark of the closing frame when Bill Quackenbush blasted a long, ankle-high shot that Woody Dumart's stick deflected into the open side of the net.

The teams play here again Saturday night.

PLENTY OF SUSPENSE

DETROIT — (AP)—If it was a good jolt the Detroit Red Wings needed, they should be all set up for the rest of their National hockey league Stanley cup series with Montreal.

And if it was extra confidence that the Canadiens lacked, they should have plenty of that by virtue of their 3-2 marathon win in the opener Tuesday night.

Either way you look at it, there will be plenty of the suspense element and probably some hot hockey when the two teams resume their best-of-seven series here tonight.

Detroit Manager Jack Adams said "it looks like a long, tough series."

That's nothing new for these traditional NHL rivals who have played four previous Stanley cup series to the seven-game limit.

Each time Detroit has come out on top.

The area of Montana is 146,997 square miles.

Seek More Fixers Of Games In East

NEW YORK — (AP)—A search is underway along the Atlantic seaboard for at least four more fixers of college basketball games.

District Attorney Frank Hogan did not disclose the names of the four, but said he knew who they were.

MACARTHUR EISENHOWER AND YOU!!

Patriotic, young Americans are needed — now — to help the U. S. Army and Air Force win the peace. The peace that means the preservation of the American way of life!

England—Alaska—Germany—France—Hawaii and the Philippines are all outposts, that need to be staffed by alert, aggressive young men. The Army needs 25 men to support every man at the front. Engineers—radio and radar—electricians—mechanics—drivers—communications and many other specialized jobs are waiting to be filled by you young men!

Those who are mechanically inclined will work with the finest and most modern mechanized equipment. Tanks, jeeps, half-tracks, motorized artillery and observation planes are only part of the great armada needed to keep the Army rolling.

Take advantage of the opportunities offered you by the greatest Army in the world — an Army that clothes you, houses you, serves the best food in the world, and provides free medical and dental care as you train and study for a future career either in, or out of, the Army.

Hotel Man Tells About The Smartest Move He Ever Made

It certainly gives you an awful sinking feeling to wake up and discover you're losing interest in your work and in life in general. That's enough to make anyone start worrying, and that's exactly what happened to Tommy Allen, Hotel Peabody, Memphis, Tennessee. But he acted quickly, got himself back on the track in a hurry, when he heard how HADACOL was helping folks who were rundown due to a deficiency of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Nicotin.

The wonderful results prompted him to write us a letter about his experience. Here's what he had to say: "I am a young man twenty-nine years old and have been engaged in hotel work for the past four years. I had no appetite and was losing weight. I was constantly sick at my stomach and nothing I ate agreed with me. After eating, my stomach would become bloated and feel uncomfortable. My condition was so bad that I began to lose interest in my work and life in general. I kept hearing about HADACOL and I decided to try it. Believe me that was the smartest move I ever made. After taking two or three bottles, I began to feel better and now after taking HADACOL for two months I feel fine. No more am I tortured with stomach distresses. Truly I can't begin to tell enough about HADACOL. I intend to keep on taking it for a long time."

Thousands have found real help, real hope for tomorrow, by relieving the cause of their sickness when due to a lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Nicotin and Iron, with today's great HADACOL.

These precious elements are supplied in a quantity greater than the minimum daily requirements. And HADACOL provides helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, too. They're all in a special, liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy, absorption in the system.

Penalties Stiffered On Illicit Dope Sales

LANSING—(P)—A bill stiffening penalties for the sale of narcotics was eased slightly and then passed in the House.

Rep. Frederic J. Marshall (R-Ala.) sponsored a successful amendment which supplanted the proposed 20-year to life term for selling drugs to minors to a 15 to 20-year term.

He said the lesser penalty would actually be as severe as life since many lifers are paroled after 15 years. It would also mean more convictions, he said, because courts are more reluctant to mete out life terms.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would remove the present four-year ceiling on terms for other violations of the narcotics act.

Former Nazis Freed Secretly In Belgium

BRUSSELS, Belgium — (P)—Gen. Ernst Alexander Von Falkenhause, Nazi military government of occupied Belgium during World War II, was released from St. Gilles prison here under cover of darkness early Wednesday.

Two other Nazi officials during the German occupation — Hans Reeder, former civilian administrator for the country, and Gen. Georg Bertram, former commander of the Liege area—were freed at the same time.

All three presumably headed for the German border. Von Falkenhause left the prison by automobile.

The time of their release had been kept secret to prevent possible demonstrations. None developed.

Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bergman, jr.
Dr. and Mrs. N. J. Frenn and Father Vladimir motored to Hancock Monday for the funeral of Rev. Joseph Breault, former pastor of St. George's church, Bark River.
